

Camp Jessie Bloom Extreme Campership

All information provided on this financial aid form is confidential.
Please return this form with the camp registration packet.

The Farthest North Girl Scout Council in conjunction with local organizations offers financial aid to girls attending Camp Jessie Bloom Extreme. The council and supporting organizations considers these monies an investment in the girls' leadership development and communities that we serve. Camperships will cover half of the camp fees. If you have any questions about camperships, please contact the council.
